"THE SKIPPER HAS HIS FLING".

"Flinger" Smith, Championship horseshoe flinger of Toonerville is the favored suitor by Jeremiah Sliser for the hand of the latter's fair daughter, Marjorie, pride of Toonerville and proprietress of the Beauty Parlor run in connection with the tonsorial establishment her father conducts.

But Marjorie's affection is centered upon young Henry, nephew of the Skipper and Henry arrives in Toonerville the day "Flinger" Smith has won new laurels as champion. Compelled to ride home in the Flinger's Ford, Marjorie obtains a pretext to ditch the unwelcome one and drive away with Henry in the Flinger's Ford. The escapade brings on Jeremiah who avows that his daughter will marry the champion; and "Flinger" challenges Henry to a horse shoe throwing contest for the girl's hand. Henry, egged on by the Skipper who has an "idea", accepts.

The afternoon of the match the Skipper has Katinka in a dugout tunnel working the pegs from below ground so that every shot Henry makes is immediately pierced by a peg rising above the ground, while the same peg is withdrawn as soon as the "Flinger's" horseshoe has encircled it. Henry wins the championship and the girl. Jeremiah who cares only that his daughter marries a champion, is appeased and the only thing left for the Flinger to fling is a fit.
